A Book Safe to Hide Valuables...

Conceal Key Assets in Plain Sight

Every home requires security measures to conceal valuables and personal items from thieves and prying eyes.

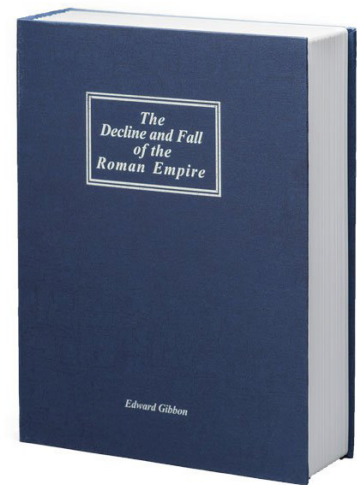

For small items of high value, such as precious metals, a book safe is a fabulous solution. The same goes for items you want to keep close by yet concealed, such as a handgun.

Our Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire book safe is a fantastic – and affordable – way to go!

Money Metals has stocked up on our supply just in time for the holidays. Grab one or two for yourself and several more as gifts.

Many of our customers are already using this exact safe as a smart solution to discreetly store precious metals in their homes.

A book safe offers several advantages over a standard safe. It's compact, lightweight, and affordable. No installation is required – you simply keep it in plain sight on a bookshelf or in your den or library.

This custom book safe looks exactly like a real book, so it blends right in with other books in your library, and includes an interior strong box with locking key.

With holiday gift season upon us, Money Metals is offering a special shipping deal on these clever book safes. Pay a modest shipping fee on the first one only, and we'll pay the shipping on the rest (all to the same address).

Give these as gifts for only $24.99 each!

You really need to have at least one of these book safes for your own use. Why not take advantage of this opportunity to purchase several more as gifts while this special shipping offer is in place?

A book safe can solve all your gift-giving worries – no fighting traffic at the mall, one size fits all, everyone can use one, and you can bet no else is giving them this gift!

Is this man picking up a package? Or is he stealing your safe in broad daylight?

Store your valuables in your easily concealed book safe!

Pre-Load Your Gift with a Starter Stash of Silver or Gold!

You may even want to pre-load their gift with a tube or two of our Paul Revere ½ ounce silver rounds, a silver bar, a small bag of junk silver, or any number of other gold or silver bullion items we carry at prices barely above the melt value.

A full tube of 15 half-ounce rounds takes up just a small portion of the book safe and sells for just over $160 at current prices. A gleaming 10-oz. bar is only about $200. A $50 face value bag of silver (the equivalent of five rolls of quarters) easily fits inside the book safe as well, and sells for only about $750 at today's prices, which are some of the lowest prices we've seen in years. Each book safe holds up to 330 ounces of product, depending on the form you buy.

Your gift of a starter allocation of silver is the perfect way to introduce a younger generation to the wisdom and security of precious metals investing. Even better when you include a smart way to securely store their holding as part of your gift!

Whether you choose to include some valuable precious metals, the book safe is only $24.99 each.

You pay the standard shipping on the first unit only, and we pay the shipping on all the rest to the same address.

To pre-load your gift with precious metals, call one of our specialists today for selection and current pricing.

Silver v. Zimbabwe Dollar Display

Another Great Gift Idea!

Teach others the meaning of real money and the inherent worthlessness of fiat currency with Money Metals' stunning side-by-side Silver versus Zimbabwe Dollar display.

Silver is one of the world's oldest and most durable forms of money. Fiat currency is not a legitimate form of money because it is not a store of a value; it is a mere promise to pay, backed by nothing.

In this exclusive display created by Money Metals Exchange, you'll receive an authentic 1 oz U.S. Silver Eagle. There has never been a time when an ounce of silver was not worth several loaves of bread.

The Eagle is dramatically paired with an authentic Ten Trillion Dollar note issued by the Reserve Bank of Zimbabwe. In less than three decades (1980-2009), the Zimbabwe Dollar was devalued by a ratio of 1:10 trillion trillion (that is NOT a typo – 10 trillion trillion is a 1 followed by 25 zeroes)!

And in 2015, the Reserve Bank of Zimbabwe announced that the Zimbabwe Dollar was being completely demonetized. It is now officially worth zero, and even a wheelbarrow full (as etched into our custom acrylic display) won't even buy a single crumb. But as a collectible, this Ten Trillion Dollar banknote has been rising in value!

Our Silver versus Zimbabwe Dollar display will be a stunning addition to your desk, office, den, library, or that of a friend. It's a constant and dramatic reminder of the need to store wealth in the form of real money, not fiat currency. A truly profound and striking gift for only $79.95!

“In the end, fiat money returns to its inner value – zero.”

Voltaire, French historian and philosopher
